

Public Company Limited by Guarantee

Introduction

- Decide on the name you want to call the company:
 - if the name has already been reserved with ASIC with a Form 410, then give the Name Reservation Number and full name of the person who reserved the name.
 - if the proposed name is identical to a business name registered before 28 May 2012, then give the RBN, or
 - if the proposed name is identical to a business name registered after 28 May 2012 with ASIC, then give the ABN.
- Decide whether you want to purchase domain names along with the new company – and if so, what those domain names are to be.
- What the objectives of the company are going to be.
- Whether a gift fund is to be setup for tax deductible donations, if so:
 - name of gift fund.
- The State or Territory in which the company is to be taken to be registered.
- Address of the company's registered office:
 - does the company occupy these premises.
 - is the company's principal place of business the same as the registered office address.
 - the opening hours of the registered office (please specify).

To create a Public Company Limited by Guarantee document package, you need to provide the information listed to the left. Print this checklist out for convenience and gather the information before you start online.
