(the service provider)

Background

A The principal conducts the business.

B The principal wishes the service provider to provide the services to the principal.

C The terms of the services to be provided are set out in this agreement.

D This agreement describes the nature of the relationship between the parties and the service provider's responsibilities in carrying out the services. Also, it outlines rules about the service provider's support staff.

A No employment relationship between the parties

1 No relationship of employment or partnership is created by this agreement. The parties expressly deny any such relationship.

2 The service provider operates as an independent contractor under this agreement.

B The service provider and support staff must be able to do the work

3 The service provider warrants that it and its support staff:

3.1 are capable of providing the services to the principal;

3.2 will provide the services to the principal;

3.3 have the skills required to carry out the services; and

3.4 will comply with this agreement in carrying out the services.

4 The service provider confirms that the qualifications of its support staff, as represented to the principal, are correct and true.

C The use of equipment by support staff

- 5 The service provider must ensure that the support staff use the principal's and the service provider's equipment responsibly and in a manner that is consistent with the principal's business objectives, as the principal communicates them to the service provider.
- 6 The service provider indemnifies the principal against all costs, claims, losses, damages and expenses it suffers or incurs in connection with the support staff's use of either the principal's or the service provider's equipment.

D When the provision of the services begins

- 7 The service provider agrees to start providing the services from the date of this agreement. This agreement commences on the day this agreement is signed.

E Service provider's responsibilities

- 8 The service provider must, and must arrange for its support staff to:
- 8.1 provide the services as and when the principal reasonably requires;
 - 8.2 carry out the services with due diligence and proper decorum;
 - 8.3 carry out the services to the principal's reasonable satisfaction;
 - 8.4 carry out the services to the best of their ability and judgment;
 - 8.5 use their best endeavours to complete the services within reasonable time frames set by the principal;
 - 8.6 carry out the services in a way that promotes the principal's business objectives as the principal communicates them to the service provider;
 - 8.7 comply with any legislation that is relevant to the services or that relates to the business; and
 - 8.8 comply with any relevant policies of the principal.

F Principal's responsibilities

Principal may not deny service

- 9 The principal agrees to use the services made available and provided by the service provider under this agreement.

Principal must indicate expectations

- 10 The principal agrees to inform the service provider about the nature of the services to be provided and how often the principal will require them.

G Where the services will be carried out

- 11 The services will be carried out at the business premises.

H Can the service provider engage in other business?

No conflict of interest

- 12 The service provider may engage in other business activities so long as those activities do not:

- 12.1 conflict with the principal's business objectives as the principal communicates them to the service provider; or
- 12.2 hinder the performance of the services to the principal's reasonable satisfaction.

Warning of conflict of interest

- 13 If the service provider sees any risk of any conflict of interest of the kind referred to in clause 12 occurring, then the service provider must warn the principal immediately.

Written consent

- 14 Once the principal has been warned of a possible conflict, the service provider must not engage in those other business activities until the service provider receives written consent from the principal.

I Support staff

Support staff employed by service provider

- 15 The service provider is the sole employer of members of the support staff. At no stage will the principal be required to employ the support staff.

Principal not the employer of support staff

- 16 The principal is not the employer of the support staff for the purposes of any law.
- 17 The principal is not liable for superannuation payments, or payments in respect of workers' compensation or any type of insurance policy with respect to the support staff.

Service provider responsible for support staff

- 18 The service provider is responsible for all superannuation payments, workers' compensation and all types of insurance policies with respect to its support staff, including personal, accident and disability insurance, and professional indemnity insurance.
- 19 The service provider has sole discretion in appointing members of its support staff.
- 20 The service provider is responsible for directing and supervising its support staff.
- 21 The service provider must:
 - 21.1 make superannuation and workers compensation insurance contributions for its support staff, except if support staff are not in fact its employees;
 - 21.2 ensure that support staff who are not employees:
 - 21.2.1 are responsible for making their own superannuation payments;
 - 21.2.2 make their own workers' compensation and other insurance arrangements that are required by law;
 - 21.2.3 indemnify the principal and the service provider in respect of all costs, claims, losses, damages and expenses they may suffer or incur in connection with any requirement in respect of the support staff to:
 - a) make superannuation payments; and
 - b) maintain such insurance arrangements; and

- 21.3 if the principal requests, produce evidence of all necessary workers' compensation and other insurance policies for itself and its support staff.

J Payment

Calculation of payment

- 22 The principal must pay the service provider for the services. The amount is to be calculated in the manner specified in column 2 of Schedule 2 (or as the parties otherwise agree).

Invoicing

- 23 Every month the service provider will give the principal a tax invoice for the previous month's service.

When tax invoices must be paid

- 24 The principal must pay tax invoices within 7 days after receiving them.

Set off

- 25 The principal may set off any amounts the service provider owes against any payments it must make to the service provider.

K GST

GST Act

- 26 In clauses 26-29, words that are defined in A New Tax System (Goods and Services Tax) Act 1999 have the same meaning as their definition in that Act.

Exclusive of GST

- 27 Except as otherwise provided by this clause, all consideration payable under this agreement in relation to any supply excludes GST.

Recipient must pay

- 28 If GST is payable in respect of any supply made by a supplier (that is, the service provider in respect of the services) under this agreement, then (subject to clause 29 of this agreement) the recipient (that is, the principal in respect of the services) will pay to the supplier an amount equal to the GST payable on the supply. The recipient is to make the GST payment at the same time and in the same manner as they pay the consideration for the supply provided under this agreement.

Tax invoice

- 29 The supplier must provide a tax invoice to the recipient before the supplier will be entitled to payment of the GST payable under clause 28 of this agreement.

L Related entities may receive services

Related entity

30 The principal may nominate a related entity to receive the services.

Fees

31 The related entity must pay fees for the services that the service provider provides to it in the manner described in section J of this agreement.

Set off

32 The related entity may set off any amounts the service provider owes it against any payments it or the principal must make to the service provider.

M Termination

33 Either party may terminate this agreement by giving the other party written notice of its intention to terminate this agreement at the end of 7 days from the date the notice is given. In that case, this agreement terminates at the end of the 7 day period.

N General

Amendment

34 This document may only be varied or replaced by a document executed by the parties.

Entire understanding

35 This document contains the entire understanding between the parties as to the subject matter contained in it. This document replaces all previous agreements, representations, warranties, explanations and commitments, expressed or implied, affecting this subject matter. They have no effect.

Further assurance

36 Each party must promptly execute and deliver all documents and take all other action necessary or desirable to effect, perfect or complete the transactions contemplated by this document.

Legal costs and expenses

37 Each party must pay its own legal costs and expenses in relation to the negotiation, preparation and execution of this document and other documents referred to in it – unless expressly stated otherwise.

Stamp duty

38 The principal must pay any stamp duty (including all fines and penalties except those arising from the default of another party) in respect of any transactions contemplated under this document or otherwise arising out of, or incidental to, this document.

Waiver and exercise of rights

- 39 A single or partial exercise or waiver of a right relating to this document does not prevent any other exercise of that right or the exercise of any other right.
- 40 No party will be liable for any loss or expenses incurred by another party caused or contributed to by the waiver, exercise, attempted exercise, failure to exercise or delay in the exercise of a right.

Assignment

- 41 Before a party does any of the following, it must first get the written consent of the other parties to this document:
- 41.1 sells, transfers, delegates, assigns, licences any right under this document to any person;
 - 41.2 mortgages, charges or otherwise encumbers any right under this document to any person; or
 - 41.3 permits a proposed assignee to assume any obligation under this document.
- 42 If a party asks another party for its consent to do something in clause 41, then the other party must not unreasonably withhold consent.
- 43 The assigning party must pay all fees and expenses (including legal fees on a solicitor/own client basis) incurred by the other parties in connection with the proposed assignment and the investigation of the proposed assignee. It must do that whether or not the other party grants consent.
- 44 The assigning party must deliver to the other parties:
- 44.1 the name, address and occupation of the proposed assignee;
 - 44.2 two written references as to financial circumstances of the proposed assignee;
 - 44.3 an agreement in a form approved by the other parties, executed by the proposed assignee, in which the proposed assignee agrees to perform the obligations of the assigning party under this document; and
 - 44.4 if required by the other parties, a guarantee in a form approved by the other parties executed by persons approved by the other parties, guaranteeing the performance of the proposed assignee's obligations.
